Always read the label. Use only as directed. Vitamin supplements should not replace a balanced diet. If symptoms persist, see your healthcare professional. Only available in retail quantities to bona fide individual consumers and through participating stores and whilst stocks last. May not be available before 1 December to 31 December 2017. RRP is either the supplier's recommended retail sale price last notified to Go Vita Distributors Limited or Go Vita's own most recent RRP recommended to participating stores. The recent effective selling price in a particular store or vicinity may have been less than that RRP. The price or possible discount or saving shown may not represent a saving in a particular store if the store has already been selling for less. Prices and stock may vary between participating stores and also online.
